MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

As the examination period approaches, I want to extend my best wishes to all students. Good luck on your exams. If you worked hard throughout the semester and prepare yourselves for the exams, I am confident that you will perform well. After your examinations are over, I hope you and your families enjoy a pleasant, peaceful and productive summer. The Fall, 1987 semester begins on Monday, August 24th and I am looking forward to greeting those of you who are not graduating after this semester.

I would also like to extend a special "best wishes" to our graduates who will be sitting for the bar examination in a few months. I have enjoyed spending the last year and a half together and encourage you to remain in touch with me and others at the Law Center. After your law school exams are over I suggest you relax for a few days before you begin your exhaustive studies for the bar exam.
